Patrick M Goggin Chief of Police

Police Department Report for May 2025

The department received a new computer in May. Bulldog Technologies installed software so it is compliant with the Pennsylvania State Police and FBI requirements for the new network security systems soon to be required. There a Burglary reported in St. Clair Township at the St. Vincent DePaul Thrift store. There was a report of theft of tailgate off of a junked vehicle in St. Clair . There were to Burglaries reported to PSP in Seward Borough at Stiles Hardware and Ice Cream stand. New Florence Borough had an incident involving fire works being tossed from a moving vehicle at pedestrians. This resulted in three people being charged with reckless endangerment. Three citations issued for dog confinement in two separate incidents, one count of Simple assault also filed in New Florence. We ask everyone to beware of increased active of children now that school is out for the summer.
