Police Department Report for November

The Police Department is operating smoothly. We have increased hours of coverage in the evenings and on weekends. There will be training on use of force this month which is required by MPOETC for all police officers in Pennsylvania.

The Department had several in depth investigations as well as two crises calls which required extra time as well as assistance from County agencies. There was 1 reported theft in St. Clair Township no suspects at this time. A second investigation resulted in 1 Person being charged with theft of services.

New Florence had two Burglaries in which the subject was charged and arrest warrants issued. A search warrant was executed on an automobile resulting in additional drug charges being filed on the burglary suspect. A second suspect was also charged with drug related crimes

Seward had 1 traffic citation
